

Due to the Python/Flask architecture and MongoDB database, all of our code is self-contained within a single .ZIP file submitted to the front-end assignment on Blackboard. This was approved by Professor Durant during class.

Adding categories or adding grades via the web-app will create any necessary database dependencies on the fly.